McNichol Says Home's the Thing.

- *Dan," says Mary, "it's nigh three years
 Since first we fixed a little nook.
 There warn'r nothin' like it around about here,
 Our house was like a picture book;
 But, Dan'l, things will sorter wear,
 And get a musty, crasy smell;
 The stuff was good, but I declare We'd orter ease 'em up a spell.

- *You recollect the way we bought?
 McNichol's time was somewhat long;
 As for such goods I never though:
 We could have come out quite so strong.
 You have your wages, thanks for that;
 I'll scrimp and save, jest so to speak;
 You'll hardly know what I am at,
 When I am paying by the week.

- Nichol's terms suit me, my friend; now when I'm well off, I guess; warm, good nature knows no end; 's been our savior, I confess. to-morrow. Dan, and see me new goods, such as I should like; edn's bother you nor me,

Looking out over the many homes of this country, we see thousands of women wearing away their lives in household drudgery that might be materially lessened by the use of a few cakes of SAPOLIO. If an hour is saved each time a cake is used, if one less wrinkle gathers upon the face because the toil is lightened, she must be a foolish woman who would hesitate to make the experiment, and he a churlish husband who would grudge the few cents which it costs.

MINERS AND OPERATORS' MEETING.

A meeting of mining officials and delegates, representatives of the mining operatives, is about to convene in this city. It will discuss the whole subject of the management of the state mines, with a view to a reform of the same. It is the purpose of the imperial authorities that workmen in these mines shall become employes of the state.

Next year the German Socialists will hold their labor demonstration on the first Sunday in May, instead of on May 1. The dismissal from employment of many of the demonstrators as a consequence of their absence from duty on May 1, and the shrinking union treasury resulting, has suggested the change of date.

The Hamburg Gas Works Strikers.

HAMBURG, May 13,-Great excitement pre wails on account of the strike of the gas workers. Africa.

LONDON, May 13 .- The demand made by Emin Pasha upon the Egyptian Government for seven years' salary as governor of the province in Africa and a life pension, is genprovince in Africa and a life pension, is generally attributed to the influence of his German advisers and not his own desire to make trouble, and considerable speculation is rife as to whether it will be complied with. That he is entitled to some compensation for his services and for their accompanying hardships is conceded, but the question of full payment of his salary during the term of his virtual inaction, together with the bestowal of a pension, is a matter that will unquestionably be subjected to serious consideration and find strong opposition before it is finally disposed of. The demand, however, will doubtless furnish a new and mexhaustible supply of ammunition to the German press in the warfare those journals are waging against Stanley and everything and everybody English.

IN THE REICHSTAG.

BERLIN, May 13.—The debate on the Colonial estimates was resumed in the Reichstag today. Maj. Liebert, Commissioner for East Africa, defended the Colonial policy of the Government. The possessions now held by the Germans in East Africa and their explorations in that part of the country promised extraordinary success. He spoke highly in praise of Maj. Wissmann's services in forming a model force and establishing stations in the acquired territory. He regarded the appointment of Emin Pasha to a mission in the acquired territory. He regarded the appointment of Emin Pasha to a mission in the German service as of great importance. Missions, he said, were highly important in colonial developments. Military rule on the east coast of Africa was securely established and German capital and enterprise, which he declared would yield a handsome profit, would be protected. Herr ton Bennizsen also spoke warmly in defense of the colonial policy.

LONDON, May 13.-Last night's debate in the House of Commons on the second reading of the local taxation bill dealing with the questhe local taxation bill dealing with the ques-tion of compensating keepers of public houses for lost licenses, developed an opposition to the measure not only surprisingly strong, but from unexpected quarters. The tide has set in strongly against the plan of Mr. Goschen and Mr. Ritchie, and even the Chancellor of the Exchequer, who delights in opposition, will probably have more of it than he expected and much more than he eares to encounter.

LORDON, May IS.—However well founded may be the charges contained in the indistreent against Maj. Panitza, just published in Sofia, that the conspiracy against the life of Prince Perdinand was instigated by Russian agents, the allegations are not new, nor, as far as can be learned, has the Bulgarian Goyernment succeeded in obtaining any evidence in the matter beyond that furnished by incautious utterances of the Major and his co-conspirators at the time of their arrest. In this phase of the case it is doubtful whether the prosecutors of the alleged conspirators will be able to convict the prisoners of an offense punishable by death, and the chances are that they will be imprisoned until such time as influences favorable to them will be able to so-cure their freedom. It is quite certain that the weight of the influence of the Russian representatives at Sofia will be thrown toward proof that the prisoners were not acting in the interests of Russia and incidentally in the direction of showing that there was no conspiracy at all.

KING'S HIGHWAY VALUES ADVANCING.

It appears to be an accepted fact now that King's highway is to be shortly converted into a grand boulevard its entire length, as there is an inquiry for building sites all along the thoroughfare from one end to the other of it, and owners aiready show a disposition to advance prices accordingly. Next to the Forest Park addition Reber place, opposite to the west entrance to Tower Grove Park, is the best improved residence subdivision on the highway, and the prospect of its being properly improved has stimulated the sale of property there to a marked degree. To-day a seven-room frame cottage, about five hundred feet west of King's highway, on the north line of Reber place with $62200 feet of ground was sold for Thomas Flannery to Margaret Grant for $4,650, and a vacant lot of $50200 feet on the same side of the place, about 300 feet west of King's highway, was sold at $55 a foot to Mrs. Edward Kayser, who is going to improve the locality with a $5,000 residence very soon. Another place, situated at the southwest corner of King's highway and Magnolia avenue, was sold by Rnitedge & Horton, who perfected each of the other transactions, at $30 a foot to Messrs. Bode & Litzan, who bought on speculation, anticipating that they will not have to wait long before they realize an advance of $10 a foot on their purchase.

MANDAN, N. D., May 13. A largely attended meeting of citizens last night protested against the proposed abandonment of Fort Lincoln. A number of farmers living south Lincoln. A number of farmers living south of town say they settled there because of the dovernment protection, and if this were withdrawn they would be compelled to abandon their farms. Strong resolutions were passed expressing alarm at the disposition of the Military Department to abandon the fort, with thousands of hostile Indians within a day's journey. Reports are to hand that similar meetings are being held in the country and great alarm is manifested.

will stand the next best chance.

For balliff there are only three candidates; the present incumbent, G. M. Barre, Joseph N. Judge and H. Clay Saxton, This contest promises to be a close one. Aft of the candidates have strength, and it depends entirely upon the converts made after the first ballot as to who will win. There was a report circulated to-day that the Millerites had made an agreement with Director Knight whereby he was to vote with them, and they were to appoint him to succeed Barre. An investigation developed, however, that there was nothing in the report.

Another important piece of business which the board has for to-night will be the calling of elections in the First and Fourth districts and appointing a successor to Mr. Rogers. The vacancy in the First District is caused by the resignation of Mr. Oscar Boliman, and that in the Fourth by the death of Mr. August Reimler. In the First District the only candidate so far mentioned is Mr. Julius Bouger. He will be run by the Aulerites. In the Fourth District the Aulerites are talking about Mr. Theodore Sessinghaus and Mr. Frederick W. Bierbaum. For Mr. Rogers' place three names are mentioned. They are: Delos R. THE STATE FIREMEN.

THEY MEET IN CONVENTION AT NO. 8 EN GINE HOUSE TO-DAY.

an Effort to Be Made to Secure an Amend ment to the State Constitution in Order That a Law May Be Passed Providin Pensions for Disabled Firemen-The

This morning the State Firemen's Convention was held in Engine House No. 8, at 816 and 818 North Seventh street. The object of the meeting was to discuss the advisability of asking asking for an amendment to the constitution which would enable the passage of a law pensioning all disabled and superanuated firemen and the widows and orphans of all firemen killed while in the service.

men's Relief Association, made a speech which plainly put before the convention the object of the meeting. The following is the substance of Chief Lindsay's speech:

CHIEF LINDSAT'S ADDRESS.

BROTHER FIREMEN OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI-Three fourths of a year has blaped since the first convention and organization of the Missouri State Firemen's Association, and the Missouri State Firemen's Association, and

EROTHER FIREMEN OF THE STATE OF MISSOURI—Three fourths of a year has blaped since the first convention and organization of the Missouri State Firemen's Association, and it gives use much pleasure to extend cordial greeting's to you all and hid you a hearty welcome to our city. As President of your association it is but just and proper to render an account of my stewardship since the date of organization. Though my term has been of short duration and the time for action has not arrived, no special movement of great import has been inaugurated other than to strengthen the association by endeavoring to arouse the firemen of the State as to its objects and intentions and thereby increase our membership. Though we have confined our labors principally in that direction, yet we have also done something looking toward the accompilehment of the great aim we have in view, viz.: that of securing State or municipal aid for the support of firemen's relief associations and to cause inquiry to be made as to the proper course to be pursued from a legal standpoint to bring shis about. We accordingly procured copies of the laws and acts now in force in several of the principal States. These, together with a statement of the present status of Missouri firemen and a prospectus of our association, were submitted to the Hon. James O. Broadhead, the eminent jurist and Constitutional attorney, for his opinion and advice. What cause more just or holy than that of providing for disabled firemen, their widows and orphans? Let us then here and now mature our plans and deliberations, go to our legislators, point out to them the advantages enjoyed by our brother firemen of other states, and the disadvantages under which we are placed. Have them submit the proposed amendment to the beople of the State and our appeal will not be in vain. It is for them the firemen labor in winter's cold, in summer's sun, in midnight storm or noonday calm, to protection of their fellow being, and are no longer able to take the active part required by, the nece have no preferences in that direction, but as individuals, be of weatever creed you will, let every fireman of the state constitute himself a committee of one to use his best ondeavors to influence the candidate of his choice in the coming election for members of the Legislature, to support and vote for measures which will place us on a just and equitable footing.

The opinion of James O. Broadhead, to whom the question was submitted, is that the Legislature has not the power to pass such a law, although it has been done in several states. Their plan is to take the money which is collected for licenses for permits to use fireworks, the proceeds of the sale of explosive materials condemned, etc. The New York Board of Fire Commissioners has the power to retire from the uniformed department any disabled member found to be disqualified from the performance of duty and to pension him. The amount of the pension is regulated by the circumstances connected with the receiving of the disability. The widows and children of members who die while in the service are also pensioned.

children of members who die while in the service are also pensioned.

In 1887, the State of Illinois passed a similar bill, and a similar law is on the statute books of Ohio. Mr. Broadhead closes by saying that a prohibitary clause in the Missouri State Constitution prevents the passage of a law until an amendment is made to the constitution, which can only be done by a popular vote.

It is expected that the meeting will last until Thursday, as there is a quantity of other business to be disposed of. The following delegates were present at this morning's meeting:

EMPERTAINING THE VISITORS.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock an exhibition of the skill of the local firemen was given. An alarm was turned in from Twelfth and Market, to which the companies promptly responded. The extension ladders were run up to Peper's tobacco warehouse and the firemen nimbly ran up and down to the great amazement of the visitors, who had been previously conducted to the spot. To-morrow carriages will be procured and the visitors will be shown the city. A banquet will be tendered them in the evening, but the arrangements for it have not yet been completed.

The speeches of Judge Burton of Nevada, Mo., and John M. Glover on the question which is aritating the firemen at present were enthusiastically received.

The much talked of report of the Com missioners of Tower Grove Park has last reached the due last January but Was or two ago. It reached the Mayor's office to-day, and will soon be before the Municipal Assembly. The report says nothing of the surplus in the fund that has caused so much discussion in the Municipal Assembly. It simply shows the expenditures and receipts for the year ending December 31 and makes some recommendations for the widening and improvement of Arsenal street and other thoroughiares in the immediate vicinity of the park. During the year the Commissioners received $37,128.75, including the $35,000 appropriation made by the city, and disbursed $35,791.05, principality for the wages of the gardeners, gate-keepers and laborers employed in the Dark.

The latest difficulty is in the bagging trade. The Southern Bagging Mills at Ninth and Barry have been closed down and Barry have been closed down about ten days for repair, but work should have been resumed yesterday. During their enforced idleness, however, the men have been discussing grievances, and instead of going to work they presented a demand to the president, Mr. Graham, for a reduction in the hours of labor, The application did not meet with a favorable response and a strike was the result. This throws 300 out of work, the majority being women and children. Some of the strikers subsequently visited the mills of the Standard Bagging Oo. and exerted considerable pressure on some of the men there to induce them to strike. They failed, however, in their efforts, and after a short time the police were summoned and the Intruders ejected.

THE TOBACCO THADE dispute has been strictly condined to the Drummond factory, and is now practically settled, as quite a number of the strikers have returned to work and business is running quite smoothly. The dispute has ended favorably to the the bosses, who are allowing the strikers to resume work. Mr. Drummond expresses his willingness to pay higher wages if the other city firms do so, but not otherwise.

The men ridicule the excuse and say work was never more brisk than at the present time. The strikers are holding aloof from the quarries though occasionally those who have taken their places are the recipients of hoots and hisses. The Quarrymen's Union was admitted into the American Federation of Labor at a meeting of the Trades & Labor Union last night and this, the men believe, will largely strengthen their position in the fight which has been of much longer duration than was anticipated. THE HARNESSMAKERS are still out. At a meeting held yesterday it was reported that seyeral of the men had obtained employment, some in the city and some elsewhere. It was decided to insist on the advance of 15 per cent and to remain out until this is granted or until a report is to hand from the convention of wholesale harnessmakers at Cincinnati this week. The local bosses are also awaiting the action of the convention and some of them have closed down their shops in the interval.

of the contending candidates renewed the battle at the candidates' headquarters, where all the ground was again carefully gone over Rooms were illuminated and the candidates were mixing with and receiving their friends and supporters until after midnight. There have been a good many changes during the day. The new candidates, the combination stages of such a contest have changed the situation from previous calculations. cept two. As soon as a quorum was an nounced Senator Anderson offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That to prevent a contingency which would enable the Republicans to determine who shall be Senator to Congress from Kentucky to succeed Hon. James B. Reck, we pledge ourselves as Democrats that before an election shall take place by the General Assembly, we will in caucus nominate a candidate for that position, and in order to accomplish this result the Chairman of this caucus shall appoint a committee who shall represent each of the candidates for Senator, whose duty it shall be to make such arrangements as will prevent an election by the General Assembly until a nomination is made by the caucus.

After considerable talk a motion to adjourn until to-morrow (Tuesday) night was made. Before it was put the committees provided for in the resolution were named. Then the question of adjournment was put. This segmed to form the only chance of testing Carlisic's strength, the Carlisic men being anxious to take a ballot, but the hall was hot, and there was no organization, so the vote to adjourn was carried, 60 to 42. The forty-two members who voted against postponement cannot be taken as an estimate of Mr. Carlisic's strength. The action of the caucus in the adoption of the House rules makes the nomination a long time in coming, because oppoitunities for delay are many under these rules. After the adjournment the forces of the contending candidates renewed the battle. The vote on the first ballot, if the compilmentary votes are cast as now contemplated, will stand about as follows: Carlisic 23; McCreary, 14; Moore, 12; Knott, 11; Buckner, 10; McKenzle, 10; Reeves, 10; Winchester, 9; Lindsay, 8; Stone, 3; Settle, 3. Nearly everybody needs a good medicine. The impurities which have accumulated in the blood during the cold months must be expelled, or when the mild days come, and the effect of bracing air is lost, the body is liable to be overcome by deblity of some serious disease. The remarkable success of Hood's Sarsaparlila, and the universal praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. It is the "ideal Spring Medicine."

COMPETING FOR BUSINESS.

The Rivalry Between the Pennsylvania and the Reading Reads. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 13.-The Pennsylvania and Reading Railroad officials are be-coming a little warm over the competition for passengers between New York and Washing ton. The Reading, with its allies, the Balti more & Ohio and New Jersey Central, proposes to make the distance between the two cities in five hours and have issued a time schedule on that basis. The Pennsylvania hours also, and calls public attention to the hours also, and calls public attention to the excellent location of its depots. The Réading officials announced yesterday that a train called "The Imperial Limited" will be run over the new routs, composed of cars now being built by Puliman with reclining arm chairs and a colored attendant, all without extra fare. They also talk of cutting the lime ten minutes more by introducing track water tanks. The Pennsylvania officials have not decided what counter inducement they will offer to passengers, but it is intimated that they do not propose to be behind their competitors.

Another of olicer writes at about the same time, stating that he was an officer in the United States army and was entitled to two servants, but that he used only one, while drawing the salary for two. He says this custom was known to the paymasters, and it was a regular thing with thousands of officers. He incloses $190 in his letter, and states that he entered the army poor and left it poor and sick, "too poor, in fact, to get along without a clear conscience, which he cannot have as long as he retains this extra money." His letter is not signed.

The following comes from Hartford, Conn.: Hon. Hugh McCulloch, Scoretary of the Treasury, Washington, D. C.

DEAR Size—Inclosed please find check for fifty dollars ($50) which is honestly due the Government by me. About three years ago the paymaster gave me, over my just pay, eighty dollars ($80). Since that time I have never had an opportunity to make any restieighty dollars ($80). Since that time I have never had an opportunity to make any restitution. I was a soldier at the time. I assure you, it has troubled me more than a fittle. I still owe thirty dollars ($80) which I intend paying this summer. After it is paid I shall feel that I have done nothing but what I ought to have done. Not a soul save God and myself knows that I kept the money or that it was ever paid me. I am a Catholic and as such it is my duty to pay back what is justly due. I do not wish to sign my name to this and, sir, I beg of you that you will do me the favor of not speaking of it to any person whereby it might get into the public press.

Hoping, dear eir, that you will look favorably on this, I remain yours respectfully.

SMUGGLERS' LETTERS.

SMUGGLERS' LETTERS.

There are nundreds of such letters, and those received from smugglers are quite as numerous. Ladies who have smuggled jewelry, gloves and Paris dresses past the customs officers at New York on their return from siry, gloves and Paris dresses pass the oustoms officers at New York on their return from Europe become conscience stricken and inclose money to the Treasurer of the United Estates. Here is one containing $5.50, which represents the duty on the kid gloves of a New York lady who says she is sorry to trouble the Secretary of the Treasury about the matter, but she does not know where else to send it.
Here are $500 from Chicago, which represents extra tariff duties uniawfully evaded, and here is a Baltimore hardware man who says he has cheated Uncle Sam out of $270 in duties and incloses the amount in gold. The letter, which is unsigned, states that the writer is anxious to deal fairly with all men and wishes to be at peace with God and his country.
Not a few of these conscience-stricken people pay back the money they have taken from the Government in piecemeal. One poor man sends $14 and says he will send more by and by. Another writes and sends the letter to the President of the United States. He says:

A Boston man, whose letter is signed with a dash, wrote to Secretary McCulloch inclosing II.500 in three $500 notes. As he originally wrote the letter in ink he says he incloses II.500, and the "twenty-five" in the ink is atricken out and the word "iffteen" in pencil written above it. This letter was received in May, 1806. A few weeks later a letter in the same handwriting came to the Treasury Department inclosing another thousand dollars and atating that the amount was the balance of the writer's indebtedness to the Internal Evenue Department. This letter was also signed with a dash and its eavelope bore the Boston postmark.

The following is from New York and is directed to the gentiemen who receive conscience money. It reads:
"Inclosed find $12, being the amount of income tax for 1864 with interest. This amount was withheld by me, but having lately experienced religion I wish to make amends for my past sins to my utmost ability, and I therefore return this amount due. My friend. Are you a Christian? If you are not, seek the Lord now, for there will be a judgment day for all. Yours.

"One who would be honest" sends $500 and asks the Secretary of the Treasury to place the amount where it rightfully belongs and oblige hims.

In contrast to these sober contributions is one letter which came to Mr. Splaner when he was Treasurer inclosing 15 cents of fractional currency which the writer states that he won from a United States postmaster at draw power and which is he is convinced rightfully belongs to Uncle Samuel. The man asks that the amount be applied to the national debt and signs himself "Conscientiously yours, Probity."

Another letter, written some time ago, and written with a pencil, reads as follows:

Treasurer of the United States:

The inclosed $52 is for Uncle Sam from one of his neelected nephews.

Written with a pencil, reads as follows:

Treasurer of the United States:

The inclosed $52 is for Uncle Sam from one of his nest ected nephews.

There was no signature but at the bottom was a request that the receipt be acknowledged through the newspapers. Nearly one-half of the writers are anxious that their money be receipted for in this way. Some ask that a mention of the matter be made by Washington correspondents, and others in close money to pay for the advertising of the receipt in the personsil columns of the newspapers of their respective cities. Not a few of them request that their letters be kept on file, and the reason for this is doubtiess that in case their sins should be found out they may be able to show that they have made restitution. In such cases it is fear of discovery rather than conscience which prompts the return of the money. The Government, when money is sent for such advertisements, always advertises them and the letters are always kept. Here is one requesting that it be preserved. It is signed, "——Jones."

And this:

Hon. Hugh McCulloch:

MY DEAR SCHOOLMATE—I send inclosed a 5-cent piece. Please apply it to wiping out the national debt, and this is not conscience money. My conscience is insolvent. Send my love to Andy, Mrs. Andy and all the little Andies. In order that you may accept this I will state that I indorse the policy of Andrew Johnson and in fact every sneak up our way indorses him. Yours truly,

A great many of these letters relate to the unpaid income taxes. Some inclose counterfeit money, and a good many of the contributions are sent through the Catholic priests. In these cases the letters are signed by the priests and a receipt is sent to them for the money whenever they request it. One man signs himself "War Democrat" and states that it be credited to the Union defenders, and that if possible the amount be applied to the impeantment of Andrew Johnson. A letter in penni, written on a slip of torn writing paper, incloses $980, and bears simply the words. "Place to credite United States." Another containing two one hundred dollar bills bears the words, "Two hundred sollars for debts." Another reads as follows: "Secretary Boutwell: Inclosed find fifty cents for debt." No signature.

"AS BIG A FOOL AS THOMPSON'S COLT."

"Well, by George, I supposed every one'd heard tell of Thompson's colt. You see, it was like this: Thompson was an early settler, and owned a team and one colt. He lived on the bank of some big stream—the Mississip, I reckon. Well, whenever that tarnal colt of his'n was thirsty, instead of walking down to the water and drinking, like a sensible critter would, what did the fool colt do but swim to the other side, wade out, shake himself, turn around, walk down and-take a drink."

Now, some folks are just like that colt, When they get bilious and constipated, they just let it run on, until first thing they know they have to swim through a long, tedious spell of sickness. A few doses of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, taken in time, would prevent all that. There is nothing equal to it for Biliousness, Impure Blood, Scrofula, or even Consumption, which is really nothing more nor less than Scrofula of the Lungs. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured thousands of cases of this most fatal of maladies. But it must be taken before the disease is too far advanced in order to be effective. If taken in time, and given a fair trial, it will cure, or money paid for it will be refunded.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.

It is not the correct thing to put a child into an elaborate white wash dress after it has passed the age of 3. White cashmere dresses with pretty little Empire bodices and dainty trimming of feather stitching in cream or colored silks are for dress occasions always suitable, put the favored materials for girls past babyhood are percales and washing silks and challies. Such frocks are over-trimmed very commonly by toe zealous muthers who seem to think that a girl baby is born for no purpose but to be embroidered; but a child's dress is neither teateful nor artistic when its sleeves are tied tightly about the middle with ribbons and when rosettes or little buttons are fung at it by the double handful and "baby" ribbons are laced and interlaced from one point of the harness to another until it appears that the poor little queen has gotton herself hopelessly tangled with the streamers of her Maypole. Wise mothers choose a low blouse over a guimpe or yoke of Swiss embroidery, with shoulder straps and (sash in black velvet; or a full waist pointed back and front with leg o' muton sleeves and graduated rows of velvet ribbon about the straight skirt with its simple four-inch hem; or a high round waist shirtered at the nex and with the fullness at the waist held by a big buckle; or a blouse of surah or India silk with jacket front; or a pointed waist with bretelles, the velvet ribbons and rosettes, which enter into this arrangement not being too overpowering.

A Destructive Fire at Hot Springs-Electric-Light Works Burned.

By Telegraph to the Post-Disparch. ATCHISON, Kan., May 13.—Fire last night de-stroyed a block of ten stores at Auburn, Neb., on the Missouri Pacific Radiroad, causing a loss of $50,000. The losers are J. M. Lindsey, a loss of $50,000. The losers are J. M. Lindsey, dry goods; J. T. Swan, hardware; E. H. Dort, drugs; McKleney Bros., groceries; D. Dicklinson, restaurant; the Auburn clothing store; J. E. Thomas, dry goods; J. H. Bauer, harness, Geo. Berlin, restaurant; Frank Fritz, tailor. The individual losses cannot now be given as some of the goods were carried out and saved. Most all the buildings were insured and there is considerable insurance on the stocks. Owing to high wind and scarcity of water the firemen could do nothing with the fire. The fire broke out at 11:55. It originated in an office in the northeast corner of the block, probably from a fine. One man began rebuilding this morning.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 13 .- Five buildings were completely destroyed by the fire at Ash-ley late last night, as follows: 8. E. Well's ley late last night, as follows: 5. E. well's grocery, Blackwell's jewelry store, Union Hail, Dr. James' residence and office, Mr. Heniger's dwelling and six or seven barns. The loss is about $50,000, partly covered by insurance. The wildest excitement prevailed and fully 10,000 people witnessed the destruction of the buildings. It was only by the most superhuman efforts that the flames were prevented from destroying the whole town.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 13 .- Fire was dis ered at 9:30 o'clock this morning in the build-ing No. 31 Main street, owned by Erastus Corning of New York and occupied in the ground floor by Neill & Canfield's fruit store and the upper stories by the Queen City Stor-age Warehouse. Loss, $10,000. The three upper stories were completely gutted. Loss covered by insurance.

WE advise the Municipal Assembly let Tower Grove Park alone.

Time enormous circulation of the Sun-DAY POST-DISPATCH last Sunday is telling a contribution to the flood sufferers on the votes of the teachers.

The worst park vandals in this city are not those who steal flowers. They are the official vandals who have stolen Washington Park and who are trying to capture Tower Grove Park.

THE delay in making arrangements for the nominations for President of the Board of Public Improvements means that both the local political committees are skulking-as usual.

PERHAPS Senator INGALLS thirks that he is conferring an inestimable benefit upon mankind by rescuing SHAKSPEARE'S thoughts from oblivion through copious quotations in his alleged speeches.

JOURNALIST ROCHEFORT'S statement try. The General's deadness has been painfully apparent for some time past.

THE meeting of the Republican Nation al Executive Committee has been postponed indefinitely. This has been done doubtless, to give Boss Ouay ample time to get from under fire so that he can resign.

REPRESENTATIVE NIEDRINGHAUS SAV that he is perfectly willing to let other businesses have twice as much protection as his business so he gets what he wants. The protection ideas of Mr. Niedring-HAUS are remarkably clear and fine.

THE friends of the schoolmistresses are working to secure the splendid prizes for their favorites as if they fully realized the shortness of the working time still left. The votes and the changes in the list of candidates give evidence of the effect of this work.

THE people of Missouri will be surprised to learn that the storm at Jefferson City tion," he says, "I can protect myself;" blew off a part of the roof of the State Yet he will vote under protest for a bill Capitol. The building was generally which puts a tax of 50 per cent on the cost thought to be wind proof, because of the of foreign borax to give a protection of severe tests which it has stood during the 250 per cent to Senator STEWART'S borax preserved our republican institutions. THE justification which INGALLS urges are bathed in an atmosphere of perpetual Indian summer.

SENATOR INGALLS says of his steal from Massillon: "The writer and orator who "repeats and preserves such thoughts and "rescues them from the dusty oblivion of the poor in order to be thought charitable. The act and its motives are similar in each case.

SENATOR BRICE is said to be attempting to control the Congressional nominations in Ohio in the interest of his own personal adherents. Brice as Senator by the power of boodle is bad enough, but BRICE is the boodle boss of Ohio would be incolerable. The Democrats of Ohio must squeich Brice or prepare to take unpleasint consequences.

In his colonial speech in the Reichstag Chancellor Von CAPRIVI placed the bullet and the Bible side by side as the chief ization of Africa. In making the bullet in the hands of the Governor, or have the principal means of grace to bring the Africans to an acceptance of the Bible, did not the Chancellor give Christianity severe backward turn?

THE plank in the platform of the Democrats of Macoupin County, Illinois, which demands semi-monthly payments of miners and the abolition of "truck" stores is a vote-winning plank. But weekly payments are better than semimonthly payments, and the demand for them should appear in the platform of Missouri's Democracy.

THE evident determination of both par ty committees to have the nominations for candidates to succeed Col. FLAD made as late as possible is not reassuring to eitizens who want the office filled by an able and honest man. Conventions held a few days before elections offer excellent opportunities for politicians to thwart the wishes of the people, without means of preventing it on the latter's part.

AUGUST HARTWIG, whose disappearance States, put them under the rule of carpetis now puzzling his friends and the police, kept silent so long about HARTWIG GRANT'S administration began with only and disposed of the camping outfit which | ten Democrats in the Senate, and the belonged to him gives rise to suspicion that he knows far more than he has told. THIEL is in a position which makes it especially to his interest to have the mystery cleared up as soon as possible.

Gov. Nicholls of Louisiana, who indignantly refused the bribe in the form of offered the people of his State by the lottery swindle, has devoted the greater part of his message to the Legislature to arguments against the renewal of the lottery charter. The men in Louisiana who have not been corrupted into tools of the lottery realize what a monstrous evil and reproach to the State the institution is.

RICHARD VAUX, who was in the dip omatic service under VAN BUREN and Mayor of Philadelphia when Sam Ran-DALL was a stripling, has been resurrected in RANDALL's old district. The fight between the ward bosses became so bitter that only some back-number favorite, not mixed up in their broils, could harmonize the party. There was no tariff question in the strife, a strong tariff rethat Gen. > THE House of Commons on Monday was considering a bill proposed by the Ministry which appropriates $2,200,000 for diminishing the number of licensed liquor sellers by purchasing their licenses. In the United States, the power of a State to destroy the value of breweries and distilleries without compensation, and without any process of law except a statute prohibiting their operation and the sale of their product, has been fully affirmed by the Supreme Court. But in England publie opinion cherishes such an extreme tenderness for property rights in business privileges that no government dares to diminish the number of licensed drinking places without compensating the publicans for the loss of their licenses.

CONGRESSMAN NIEDRINGHAUS Says he is a protectionist in the sense that he is in favor of protecting labor only. "As a "manufacturer I do not require protecto compel consumers to pay 7 cents a pound for borax that costs but 2 cents. When Speaker REED said Federal elec tions must be taken into Federal hands, and that "we" (the party in possession) must "cut loose from State elections, do our own registration, our own counting and our own certification," he forgot of course that the most important of all Federal elections, the choice of presi- of Posen." dential electors, is placed by the Constitution securely and exclusively in the hands of the State Legislatures.

The supreme law of the land provides expressly that the electors for each State "shall be appointed in such manner as the Legislature thereof shall direct." The Legislature of any State can place agencies to be depended upon in the civil- the appointment of presidential electors them appointed by the people at a special State election, or otherwise, and any law of Congress infringing or restricting this constitutional power of the State Legislatures will be declared null and void by the United States Supreme Court while the present Federal Constitution remains unchanged.

The limited power expressly conferred on Congress to "make or alter" the regulations of the several States in regard to the election of Senators and Representatives in Congress contains no suggestion of authority to take those elections en tirely out of the hands of the State authorities. But what if such authority were undisputed, and were exercised without opposition, what could the party in possession accomplish by it but its

The people have not forgotten the result of a former experiment made by Mr. REED's party in the way of taking into Federal hands the election of Congressmen and State officers. It disfranchised THAT ANTON THIEL, the companion of the property and intelligence of a dozen bag thieves and negroes, and Gen. South represented in the House entirely by Republicans. But the people and the business interests of the whole country have sad reason to remember the disorders, tumults, massacres, bankruptcies and industrial tornor that ensued and de pressed the South for the next ten year and until the North rescued Southern elections from "Federal hands" and restored their normal authority to the peo ple and the States.

Does Mr. REED suppose that the North will accept for its own elections a Federal control which it so quickly condemned and demolished when imposed on the South alone?

A Political Revolution.

From the Philadelphia Times.
Especially has the political revolution been sweeping in Indiana, the home of the President. His own home city elected its first Democratic ticket for nearly a quarter of a week such Republican strongholds as Crawfordsville, Lafayette, Lebanon, Noblesville Vincennes and Wabash have given decided Democratic victories, and some of them for the first time in their history. To these disasters must be added the recent defeat of the Administration party by 10,000 in Chicago its defeat by 5,000 in Milwaukee and its late efeat by 2,000 or more in St. Paul, where Harrison had a majority of thousands for record is supplemented by the loss, for the first time in many years, of the majority of the election districts of New York outside of the cities, and the total loss of Rhode Island, including State officers and Legislature, i would be idle to assume that these defeats, so general and so decisive, are the more ebuili tions of the personal disappointments which om the New York Metropolitan. I have received many letters concerning the paragraph about a reform in men's clothes. Last year the WORLD introduced the flannel shirt, and it was very successful in its sphere but it does not meet the long-felt want of comfortable full dress. My fashionable friend, Curtis, once attempted a reform, and was called "Point-lace Curtis" for years in consequence. Senator Evarts used to wear shirts of the finest linen, the bosom unstarched, and he looked as cool as an iceber; in the warmest weather, I had shirts made upon this model last summer. Let us begin moderately, without at once indulging in lace ruffles, and by and by fashion will declare

The Farmer's Fate.

From the New York World. Gradually the husbandman is being driver to the wall. Not many years ago he was the citizen. It was his sturdy patriotism which saved the Union. Now the Government is rehim a pittance by way of a pension when he is disabled, and making him a beggar. Even now he can make both ends meet only by laboring from morning to night, living or the coarsest food, foregoing comforts, bring ing up his children without education, dwelling among his beasts of burden, who alone are less miserable than he.

Prostituting the Judiciary.

From the Philadelphia Record.

There is aiready too much partisanship in Judge Woods of Indiana sadly demonstrate Yet the Hoar Federal elections bill would prostitute the entire Federal judiciary to the purposes of party. Instead of a Woods here and a Swayne there judges would be selected with a view to their partisan utility and the Pederal courts would swarm with the judicial desperate attempt to convert the Federal judges into a satrapy of centralized power wielded by a partisan committee sitting in permanent session in the city of Washington.

The holders of property along Taylor avenue, between St. Louis and Ashland avenues have a bill in the Municipal Assembly, which has just been favorably passed upon by Street Commissioner Burnet. Some time ago when Taylor avenue was but forty feet wide they donated ten feet on each side, making it a sixty-foot thoroughfare. Now they ask that they be allowed to keep the ten feet on the west side and give in return ten additional feet on the east which will still leave it a sixty foot street. Their object in making this request is to preserve a line of fine shade trees on the west side of the street which will have to be removed if the bill fails to pass. The bill was referred to the Street Commissioner by the Assembly, and that official has no objection to its passange. has just been favorably passed

Her Majesty's Government, as it appeared, had no such understanding. The data furnished to the British Minister as Washington by the Canadian Government indicated that the necessities of the case fell materially short of a prohibition of in-sea fishing. This divergence of view at the threshold of the negotiation led to a protracted examination and discussion of evidence supplied by the Treasury Department at Washington, and the Ministry of Marine and Fisheries at Ottawa, and was the prime cause of the sending of Minister Tupper to Washington to assist Sir Julian in the examination and discussion of the facts and opinious of the Canadian and American officials and experts who had been connected with

THE SEAL FIRHERIES.

After Mr. Tuppur's return to Ottawa, the Government of the United States submitted a project of a convention in which the Canadian Cabinet Council seemed to go considerably beyond what was indicated as necessary by the facts and opinions mutually accepted up to that time. Thereupon the British Government submitted a project which seemed to be supported by all the trustworthy information in common possession. This was not deemed satisfactory by the United States, whereupon both parties agreed that further and more reliable information was destrable, and this they purpose to obtain by a joint investigation of the resi state and characteristics of the fur seal fishery, through the agency of a mixed committee of experts, upon whose reports, with accompanying evidence, they mean in ample time to have the international regulations in operation next session, to frame a convention. Meantime, there will be no seizures of British vessels in Bebring Sea, except for actual violation of the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. The Canadian sealers, however, will be advised, out of regard to their permanent interests, to use their sealing privileges in moderation and not in such manner as to give renewed occasion to the American Government to represent the perpetuity of the fur seal as endangored by the presence of pelagic sealers in Behring Sea, in any event the British Government of the United States in the seal herd resorting to the American Islands in Behring Sea and to stop short at no restriction necessary to favor the female seals from attack and slaughter. This assurance has passed at Washington with the full concurrence of the Quandian Government, which disclaims any wish to be a party to destructive operations by its citizens against the fur seals.

to the Secretary of the Committee on Education of the General Conference:
"The college was founded in obedience to a

"The enterprise began in a hired house with about fifty pupils. At the end of the first-scholastic year the enrollment had reached 104 pupils, the founder had paid the way of the school and had given proof of his ability to establish it upon a sound basis.

104 pupils, the founder had paid the way of the school and had given proof of his ability to establish it upon a sound basis.

"At this crisis the friends of the movement solicited Dr. Kelley to undertake the work of raising money to aniarge the facilities of the institution. This the doctor agreed to attempt, provided the founder of the school would agree to turn the college over to the church without conditions or encumbrance. This was cheerfully done, and in June, 1881, the institution passed into the control of a board of trust composed of loyal Methodists.

"Before attempting to raiss the money for the college, Dr. Kelley secured from the authorities of the Vanderblit University assurances of their helpful co-operation in the founding of the college. The meeting for securing funds was presided over by Bishop McTyeire, who subscribed liberally to the objects of the enterprise. Chancellor Garland pledwed the co-operation, in all casential particulars, of the University, and the trustees at their meeting in June gave to the Nashville College for Young Ladies the official privileges of access to the facilities of the Vanderblit. REVOLUTIONARY SENTIMENTS.

T. J. Magrader, chairman of the Committee on Sunday Schools, reported on a number of memorials as to Children's Day and tha use of Sunday School funds. One memorial asked that the churches separately be allowed to determine what day they would adopt for Children's Day. In regard to this the Sunday School Committee recommended non-concurrence. This arroused a bitter discussion.

Rev. John E. Edwards of Lynchburg, Va., who is one of the dides ministers in the boay—though not appearing to be within thirty years of that special honor—spoke in opposition to this recommendation. He said it was absurd to suggest that the General Conference should make a law applicable to all sections of the church equally as to Children's Day. Conditions varied with localisies, and he, for his part, would not be bound by such a law. He would have Children's Day in his church whenever it pleased him. The pastor and the Superintendent of the Sunday-school were the persons to determine the matter.

This revolutionary outburst was not treated seriously by the delegates. The report was put off the calendar.

The Committee on Missions recommended non-concurrence in a memorial for the ordination of deaconesses for work in connection with mission work. This has been the result of all attempts of women for increased recognition from the General Conference.

Walker and others on the Committee on Ituerancy to devise some means for the reaching of the poorer laboring class in the large cities with religious instruction, the view of drawing them away from the beer garden, the race course, the theater and other demoralizing influences.

BASE OF REPRESENTATION.

E. L. Armstrong, Horace Bishop and others proposed a change in the basis of representation to the General Conference. The present rule is one clerical delegate to thirty-four members. They propose, asserting that the general conference has grown unwieldy and is entertained with difficulty, techange the bases to one delegate to forty-two members.

Some strong resolutions on prohibition were introduced and referred to the Committee on Temperance, which has under consideration a number of similar resolutions.

Lutheran Church plan to go into politics for the purpose of attacking the compulsory eduself as a candidate for the State Senate. At the recent meeting of the Lutheran Synod at Springfield it was determined to put up candidates for the Legislature in certain districts where the Lutheran Church is the strongest, piedged to vote for a repeal or a modification of the law. The particular clause simed at is the one requiring that all the common branches betaught in the English language, and this is the one which the church desires to have stricken out. Mr. Senne said that the Lutherans would try to nominate and elect members of the Legislature in a number of northern districts, hoping to elect enough members pledged to a modification of the compulsory education law to control the balance of power in the Legislature and force their point. The Lutherans are almost all Republicans, but in this they expect the aid of the German Catholies, who are largely Democrats, and between the two forces it is thought half a dozen districts can be carried. He clamand as he neared the river jerked his and as he neared the river jerked his coat off and dived into the muddy stream just as Granger's fingers were reaching for his neck. Ferguson swam straight across the river, and Granger without pausing a second, splashed into the water after him. The fugitive had a good start, but the swift current of the river at the bend where the plunge took place, prevented his making much headway. Detective McMillan, fearing that the man would drown before making much headway. Detective McMillan, fearing that the man would drown before Granger reached him, threw over several boards from the lumber pile, one of which Ferguson selzed just as Detective Granger grasped him. The officer did not relax his firm hold and propelled Ferguson steadily toward the dock and Detective McMillan, assisted by the crowd, which had followed, dragged the two men ashore.

She reckons well

who does her housecleaning and washing (or has her servants do this work) with PYLE'S PEARLINE.

Why? Because Pearline makes the largest saving all around; saves half the time, 'alf the labor—more than half the year. Do you know you don't have to rub the clothes when washed with Pearline? This saves the woman and makes the clothes last longer (besides, they look better). What can be harder on woman's health than bobbing up and down over a wash-board? What can be harder on the clothes-anything harder don't exist. Millions of women know these facts well; it takes many millions of packages of PEARLINE to supply their demands for it. You have only to prove these facts and you'll demand it. The best way is—try it. Costs little and every grocer has it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not.

WHY HE WAS OUSTED.

THE COURT OF APPRALS' DECISION IN THE SCHOOL BOARD CASES.

The Court Explains Why It Ousted B. L. Essay on the Ambiguity of Some Laws and the Duty of the Courts—The System of Assessing and Tax-Paying Reviewed.

The Court of Appeals this morning rendered its decision in the School Board cases, defining the law and explaining the points by which it reached the conclusion to oust Henry writs of ouster in the cases of William Macklin, Oscar Bollman and Richard Bar-tholdt. The opinion reviews the system in this State of assessing and taxing property, biguity of some laws and the duty the courts of the land have to perform in interpreting them and at the same time do justice, and not attack the foundation of government which is its laws. The decision in brief is as follows: THE DECISION.

The proceeding in these cases is upon offi-cial information filed by the Circuit Attorney of St. Louis, charging that the respondents have usurped and do unlawfully usurp the therein.

The language of the act is that no person shall be elegible in any such city * * * who shall not have paid a school tax therein for two consecutive years immediately FRECKDING HIS ELECTION.

The contention of the relator is that the true meaning of this clause is; who shall not have paid a school tax assessed against him for the benefit of schools in such city in each year for two years immediately preceding his election. That is to say, if a director is elected on the 5th of November, 1889, in order to be eligible he must, according to the relator's contention, have paid a tax within the year between November 5, 1887, and November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from November 5, 1888, and one within the year from June to June. The solution is untenable. The payment of atax for a preceding year can only mean either the facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year for the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year. There is no facat year or the calendar year can only mean either the facat year or the calendar year. C. YOUNG & SONS CO., 1406 Olive Street. The taxes assessed in said book are known as the taxes for the year in which the assessment is finally completed, corrected and abstracted, although assessed as of the first day of June in the year next preceding. They are so stated on the books and so placed in the tax bills. There is therefore no other tax known than a tax for a calendariyear, where reference is made to a tax for a certain year. It results from this, that when reference is made to taxes for two consecutive years immediately preceding an election, the term has reference to the calendar years preceding the year in which the election takes place. This is the common and ordinary sense of the term used, and therefore must be taken to be the sense in which the Legislature has used it. Now is there any force in the argument that the taxes must be paid within each calendar year? The law simply requires that it shall be paid for two consecutive years, and not that it shall also be paid within those years. There is no ambiguity in the terms used, and we cannot read them otherwise than they are written. Our duty is to declare, and not to make, the law. We had occasion to go over this subject in the case of Boyd vs. the J. M. Ward Furniture Co., decided last December, when an argument as to the inconvenience of a certain construction was made, and replied to it by quoting Chief Justice Marshall in United States against Fisher, that "where great inconveniences will result from a particular construction that construction is to be avoided, unless the meaning of the Legislature is plain, in which case it must be obeyed." We quoted in that case the emphatic declarations of Chief Justice Tin-

THE IMPRISONED ANABCHISTS. Ben Butter Engaged to Secure Their Re Tease Through the Federal Courts. CHICAGO, Ill., May 13 .- Preparations have been made to attempt to secure the release from the pen of the con-victed Anarchists Fielden, Schwab and Neebe by a method heretofore not hinted at in the case. In a short time an application will be made to Judge Gresham for a writ of habeus corpus on the ground that the prisoners are detained without due process of law. No less an authority than Benjamin F. Butler says that the effort will almost beyond doubt be successful, the opinion being based on the ex-pressions of the United States Supreme Court in the proceeding heretofore brought before tained associate counsellor in the case.

The Anarchists' lawyers say the writ of ha-beas corpus will be asked for on the ground that after the sentence of death was passed upon the condemned Anarchists and Neebe was upon the condemned Anarchists and Neebe was deomed to spend fifteen years in the penitentiary, the case was appealed to the Supreme Court where the finding of the lower court with the sentence of death for Spies, Parsons, Lingg, Fischer, Engel, Schwab and Fielden was affirmed. The prisoners were not taken before the Supreme Court to hear this affirmation of their sentence, and their lawyers were not even notified to be present. The claim was made that this is a breach of their constitutional rights, and that the constitutional rights, and that the constitution goes even so far as to say that a sentence of death, rendered in the absence of the prisoners, was not due process of law. Gen. Butler writes unde date of May 10:

After giving sufficient examination to the record in the case of Fielden, I have come fully to the conclusion that such action as erroneous in that it was an attempt to take his life without due process of law. I therefore advise very strongly your taking a writ of error to have such procedure corrected by the judgment of the Supreme Court of the United States, if any technical objections are made to the Oirouit Court, for a writ of habeas corpus for Fielden, because under that writ the facts as well as the law can be discussed and forms are of no consequence when they stand in the way of due course or justice. Of course the decision of these questions relieves any of his fellows who are suffering from the same errors if decided as I believe they must be, asve the men whose lives have been taken without due process of law." doomed to spend fifteen years in the peniten-

Bitrawberries—The early receipts were all Arkansas, which sold readily at fair prices to the shipping order trade, who were compelled to catch the first arrivals to fill their orders on the outgoing morning trains. The receipts were the largest of the season, being in the neighborhood of 5,000 cases, and after the carly trade was supplied the market showed a disposition to actite to values of the home-consumptive demand. The best stock, which comes from Missouri and Kentucky, was too late to earch the early shipping demand and was generally sold to the local trade and at much lower figures than could have been obtained had the berries arrived on time. The weather here was another bad feature and peddiers only bought sparingly, and then at low prices. The condition of Missouri and Kentucky arrivals was good, while Arkansas and Tonnessee were only fair, Missouri, however, she wing her superiority. An Important Decision. LEAVENWORTH, Kan., May 13.-Judge Crozler has made an important decision affecting the Kansas prohibition laws. Certain provisions In the law he has declared unconstitutional. The case was one in which the Assistant Attorney-General of the State for this county, W. W. Black, had Dennis Ryan, Street Commissioner of this city, and others summoned before him to give any knowledge they had as 50 persons selling liquor in violation of the State prohibitory law. Ryan and the others summoned refused to testify or give any information to the Assistant Attorney-General and he had them committed to the County Jail for contempt. Habeas corpus proceedings were immediately begun and resulted in their release.

ONE OF THE COLTS WILL WIN THE KEN TUCKY DERBY TO-MORROW.

eview of the Principal Candidates for th Race-Record of Hermit, the Great English Stallion-Racing at Lexington and Linden-The Browns Defeated-Bow at the McFadden-Stookey Match Sporting News.

O. MORROW the meet ing at Louisville opens and the Kentucky This stake has been a ted one for fiftee years, and until the portant race in the untry. Other stakes which bring far more than the great Ken tucky 3-year-old event have dimmed its luse-still there is al ways much interes taken throughout the country in the outthis year there are none of the first class, ndged by their performances last year. True, some of them may yet develop int first-class animals, but the chances are rather the reverse. Certain it is there are none o the caliber of Jos Cotton, who won in 1885 Lord Murphy in the year 1879, or the mighty Hindoo, the victor in 1881. The horses eligible this year are more of the caliber of Buchanan and Macbeth II., although in breed ing the majority of them will rank with the greatest of their time. But blood doesn't always count in the race horse any more than it does in the human family. Careful handling has a great deal more to do with sending a horse first past the post. And there are precious few trainers in the profession to-day who can fit a horse for a fixed event with the skill of George Rice, Lee Paul and men of their time, notwithstanding the fact that John Rodegap sent Spokane to the post so fit that he ran the fastest Derby on record. 34th the fact that John Rodegap sent Spokane to the post so fit that he ran the fastest Derby on record—2:34½.

There will probably be ten or twelve starters, but of these only four are supposed to have any chance of winning. They are Ed. Corrigan's Riley, Robespierre of the Chicago Stables, Prince Fonso and Bill Letcher. Each will carry 122 nounds, Isaac Murphy will ride Riley. Tom Kiley Robespierre, Overton Prince Fonso, and J. Porter Bill Letcher. All but the last named have good records as 2-year-olds, Riley being considered the crack coit of that age in the West. He ran twelve times, winning six races, finishing second three times and being unplaced three times. Robespierre started in thirteen races, of which he won four, was second in two, third in three and unplaced in four Prince Fonso only started eight times, winning four races, finishing second in two and being unplaced in two.

According to the figures Riley and Prince Fonso are pounds better than anything in against them, but nine experts out of ten will tell you that there is nothing in it but Robespierre. His commanding victories in the Tennessee Derby at Memphis and the Two Thousand and Duncan Hotel stakes, but he was conceding her 15 pounds, quite a lump of weight to a mare that has covered a mile in 1:394-5 and is in good form just now. His other two races he won in true racehorse style, though in one instance he had Prince Fonso behind him and in both that clever cott Blarney Stone, Jr. He is just now in the pink of condition, and will make his competitors know they have been to the races. Bill Letcher made him stretch his neck to beathin and as Letcher is reported in fine condition he does not lack backers. Riley has not started this year, and many people think that there will be nothing in the race but him on account of the wonderful form displayed by him as a 5-year-old. The race is almost certain to be between Riley and Robespierre, and while Letcher or Prince Fonso may secure the place, they can scarcely win.

McFadden-Stookey Match.

The McFadden-Stookey wrestling match a Believille last night nearly resulted in a row in consequence of the decision of the referees. Stookey's brother seconded him and Mooney seconded McFadden. C. Becker, John Fogarty and John Dietz of St. Louis acted as referees. Stookey's brother claimed fails for his brother which were disallowed by the referees, and Stookey dressed himself, refusing to wrestle. The audience made a rush for the stage and the referees and St. Louis sports climbed out the rear windows and escaped to the special train. The succeeding bouts will probably be held in Fuiman, Ill., at the tournament of the Chicago athletes. Belleville last night nearly resulted in a row

WILKESBARRE, Pa., May 15.—John Eagan, second "Coal-oll Johnny," died at the Hilla second "Coal-oil Johnny," died at the Hillside Poor-house a tew days ago. He was the only son of Patrick Eagan, who bought a farm in the Lackawanna Vailey forty years ago and sold it for $500,000 when it was discovered that there was coal underneath. He died a year after the sale and the money went to his son. John's sole occupation from that time forward was to see how he could get rid of the money. One of his eccentric actions is sufficient to give an idea of the rest. He had never seen a railroad collision and thought he would like to. So he bought two engines, had a rack built for them on his farm, and fet them come together with full steam up.
This pleasure cost him many thousand dollars, but he said the sight was worth it.

CENTER CREEK'S TRAGEDY

THE MYSTERIOUS MURDER OF LEANDER PASCO LAST SATURDAY.

All Sorts of Stories Told by the Excited Citizens-The Victim Alleged to Have Been a Eery Bad Man, on Unfriendly Revenge.

Fy Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch. GLENS FALLS, N. Y., May 13.—Leander Pasco of Thurman, this county, was shot down while returning home Saturday night. The little hamlet of Center Creek, near where the crime was committed, was wild with excitement and all sorts of stories were told by the excited citizens. The shafts of suspicion had already been launched in the direction of a dozen persons. The body of Leander Pasco had been found in the road riddled Pasco had been found in the road riddled with buckshot. Fayette Grimes, a prother-in-law of Pasco, while on his way to Creek Center Saturday evening, met the murit dered man. A few minutes after he heard a gun fired twice and a little further on met George Pasco, son of the murdered man. Grimes started on his homeward journey at that a large and respectable element was not satisfied with the pastor's record after the finding of the Charlottetown trial; that a large and respectable element was not satisfied with the pastor's record after the finding of the Charlottetown trial; that a large and respectable element was not satisfied with the pastor's record after the finding of the Charlottetown trial; that a large and respectable element was not satisfied with the pastor's record after the finding of the Charlottetown trial; that a large and respectable element was not satisfied with the pastor's record after the finding of the Charlottetown trial; that a large and respectable elemen buckshot. Fayette Grimes, The Standards defeated the St. Charles (Mo.) gun fired twice and a little further on met Browns Sunday by a score of 14 to 6.

The barrel was heavily loaded with buckshot dropped the ax and rushing forward for about and it shattered the victim's left hand. Pasoo dropped the ax and rushing forward for about twenty feet, pitched head foremost into the open umbrella as the second charge of buckshot struck him in the back. Some of the shot lodged at the base of the brain, and one passing through the heart caused instant death. The munderer approached near enough to see that his man was dead. In the dead man's pockets were found a sliver watch, $6.43 in money, and a loaded revolver, showing that robbery was not the motive. The murdered man leaves four children, who were unable to agree with their father. George Pasco, his son, had a pitched battle with him recently and received a severe pounding. His son had a warrant issued for the arrest of the father but the case was thrown out of court. The neighborhood is considered on a par with the Hatfield community. Robberies are of frequent occurrence and lawsuits have been numerous. Live stock has been poisoned and the record of the place is such that respectable people give it a wide betth. The victim was 60 years of age. He was known as a quarreisome man with an ungovernable temper and would fight on the slightest provocation. It is said of him that on one occasion he sold s man a horsehide, stole half of it at night and sold the stolen half again to the same purchaser. Some years ago

ABROTHER WAS KILLED by a trap gun while stealing corn from a neighbor. A child was found strangled by the roadside, and on town-meeting day, 1884, Mrs. Almon Swears was shot and killed at her home. The assassin was never arrested. Only a few years ago a Mrs. Resha was wounded by a shot fired through a window. The residents of High street, as the place is called, have been quarreling for fitteen years, and threats were often made of killing. Suspicion pointed at one time towards the Herbert family, but both Mr. and Mrs. Herbert, who recently worked a month for Pasco and were refused their wages, told a straight story. Pasco was on his way home from defending the suit brought by the Herberts when he wa wages, told a straight story. Pasco was on his way home from defending the suit brought by the Herberts when he was killed. Shortly after Mrs. Herbert got home she heard two gun shots and George Pasco came in and asked what the shooting was about.

"We have been told," the woman said, "that suspicion rested upon myseif and husband because i had sued Mr. Pasco. But this is all nonsense. We do not even own agun."
The tracks found in the woods have been measured and a strong effort will be made to bring the murderer to justice. Several theories have been advanced, but the only one tenable is, "murdered for revenge."
Taken all in all, Pasco was a hard man and his fate was not surprising to many.

COLBY, Kun., May 13.-The Sixth Distric Republican Congressional Convention after a two days session nominated Webb McAnall, between 5 and 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock gesterday afternoon. The nomination was the result of the combination effected to defeat Congressman E. J. Turner, who now represents the district in Congress. The finel vote was 61 to 45, the latter representing the strength of Turner. Considerable ill-feeling was engendered by the means employed to defeat Turner and the delegates who supported him refused to make McAnail's nomination unanimous. McAnail came to Kanaas in 1871 and settled on a farm in Smith County. He has taken an active part in politics and has filled several offices given him by the Republicans. He is at pres-ent Registrar of the Land Office at Kerwin, a position given him by President Harrison.

THE JOLIET CHURCH TROUBLE. another Great Set-To Ending in Favor of

Rev. Whitman. JOLIET, Ill., May 13 .- There was another great set-to in the Baptist Church last night and it is probably the final one, as the majority, who are with the pastor, made a whole sale suspension of the opposing members among whom are some of the most promi nent men in town. The pastor's majority is increasing since they received and baptized him anew and resolved to blot out the past.

'hose in Jollet were turned on the pastor it would not wash away his uncleanness. Finailly the church yoted to suspend the following: J. E. Bush, Solomon Williams and wife, Wm. Myers and wife, J. M. Preston and wife, Wm. Ross, and a number of others. Two little girls jumped up and shouted: 'We want to be suspended, too.' The names are among the most respectable in the church. The following of the Rev. Whitman is made up of good people, earnest and candid in their faith in him, while the opposition is equally respectable, earnest and candid.

He had made the proposition to mortgages a plece of real estate and was in fact negotiating with a St. Louis company for the loan when one day his bride of a few short months received a letter from Columbus, O., which drove the bloom of youth from her cheeks. The communication was from a woman who signed herself Mrs. John Sturr and contained the information that Sturr had been married to the writer for over five years, deserting his wife and three children almost a year before. The letter also intimated that an examination of the court records at Chicago would show that Sturr had been married there shortly after leaving Columbus.

IMP. CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.

ASSOCIATION, and expect to make a loan and buy a house, and pay for it with the same monthly payment as I now make for rent. You see, these associations do not deduct the premium from the face of the loan, and one knows the amount received on a loan equals the value of each share multiplied by the number of shares bid in. The payments are divided into 100 equal parts, and one of the parts is payable monthly, which equals, as a matter of fact, only the rental value of the property. I must, of course, pay rent, and it strikes me the most sensible thing for me to do is to buy my house, and, after I shall have made 100 payments to the association, I become my own landlord and have no more rent to pay, thus doing, through the medium of the Western Union, what I would not be able to do under any what I would not be able to do under any other circumstances. There are four Western Unions now, and they have a Board meeting every Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at which time and place I can hear association business fully and thoroughly discussed, and have the option of bidding in a loan should I wish to do so. The Western Unions have 10,000 shares, with a combined

Capital of $2,400,000! and 7,000 of these shares are now in force, leaving only 3,000 shares on sale at $1 per share per month. For further particulars call or address

Stearns of the Elleardsville and Mrs.Y. E. Clarke of Beethoven Conservatory Make Big Leaps-Other Remarkable Changes-List of the Standing of the First Two Hundred Candidates-Another Chance for Pupils-Some Interesting Questions Answered.

It is impossible to print all communications | sent to this office in regard to the teachers ection. This announcement is made in an nublished which contain matter of general in terest. If you have a good reason to state why any teacher should be voted for, send it in. If you desire to make any reasonable sugges-tion, it will be attended to at once But hundreds of letters, without signatures nouncement that ballots are inclosed for a teacher mentioned, are thrown away because lack of space does not permit their use Voters should remember this and should also remember that communications of an anon mons nature are of little use, as a rule forcibly, sign your name and your epistle will

TO PUPILS.

Remember that the offer made last week 1 still open. The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH will print letters for pupils in any school giving easons why their teachers should be selected to go to Europe. Make the letter brief and as striking as possible. A short letter, which will attract public attention, will bring your favorite many votes from the public. Every boy and girl who is at work for his or her teacher should try this plan. It is the best electioneering that can be done. The letters will all be published next Sunday, but writer should not hold them back until that time The sooner they are received the more easy it is to properly classify them. Send them in as soon as possible. Voters will remember that a big batch of these letters appeared last Sunday. The next Sunday Post-Dispart will be the last but one in which a ballot will appear. Take advantage of the chance to put your teacher before the public. State what you like about her, and the public will on the strength of your letter give her many youes that she would never have ob-tained.

THE VOTE AND THE COUNT.

So far as can be told this afternoon, this will be by far the heaviest voting week in the election. The tellers have more than they can handle—much more than they expected. The voting is well scattered among all the candidates, which makes the count much more difficult.

dates, which makes the count much more difficult.

It is waste of space to attempt to sell what the teachers' election is. Everybody knows now. The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH has invited the public generally to choose by vote two lady teachers from all the schools in the city. The ballot on which the vote must be cast is printed in the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH only. The two ladies who receive the highest votes will be sendered a two months' trip to and through Europe, at the expense of the PoST-DISPATCH. The European trip will be directed by Cook's Tourist Co., which means that all arrangements about transportation, hotels, sight-seeing, etc., will be made for the tourists by couriers, thus taking much of the trouble of travel off their hands.

To the lady teacher who receives the third highest vote the Mermod & Jaccard Jewelry Co. will present a lady's gold watch and chain, cost price $200.

The last ballot will be printed in the Sunday POST-DISPATCH of May 25, and the result will be announced on the following Sunday.

To the list printed below contains the standing of the first 200 teachers in the race to-day, Numerous voters who complain that their fayorite's name does not appear should reof the first 200 teachers in the race to-day. Numerous voters who complain that their favorite's name does not appear should remember that the full list of nearly seven hundred and fifty candidates is printed only on Thursday and Sunday, that on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday only the first 200 names appear, and that on Monday and Saturday no list is given. This arrangement was amounced several weeks ago. The full list requires nearly three columns to hold it, a serious inroad on valuable space. When your teacher's name is not in the list, see whether it is the full or the partial returns that you are reading.

that you are reading.

AN INTERESTING FEATURE.

On next Sunday the series of interesting sketches of leading teachers will be continued. The article will be profusely illustrated. Look out for this feature.

How They Stand To-Day. The list of the leading 200 candidates here given shows some remarkable changes to-day. First among them is Miss Anna B. Royd of the Bates, at the top. This will be a very great surprise to the friends several of the leaders, who were not looking for dark horses, Miss Boyd's advance has been the result of hard work on the part of her friends and pupils During a great part of the race she did not seem to be in it, but for the last two weeks her advance has been remarkable. Sunday she was third. To-day she is first. How long will she hold it? This young lady's success will stimulate work all along the line, as it shows that the race is to the hard worker and that the teacher whose friends work in concert is a dangerous element all the time. lines. A comparison of the list below with that of Sunday will give much food for reflec tion, and much encouragement for hard work.

St. Louis, May 11, 1890.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I would like a very serious and the post-Dispatch: To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I would like very much to see the pupils and friends of Miss Neenan of the Carondelet School do their utmost to secure the first piace in the lists, which she descryes. As a teacher she cannot be excelled, as she is very popular in Carondelet, which piace is noted for the great activity of its citizens, who work on quietly without pretensions, and who, when the end draws near, will cause some of the "would-be" winners to step back and then place their favorite in the lead a winner. Trusting that her friends and pupils will work in dead carnest to get her the prize is the carnest wish of the writer. Work for your teacher and try all you tcan to get her the prize by the "Post-Dispatch plan."

ST. LOUIS, May 13. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Inclosed please find ballots for May T. Verbarge of the Clinton School. I hope she will rise to the head of the list, so she may be the happy teacher who is to go to Europe. M. S.

To the Editor of the Post- Dispatch: The boom for Sophie T. Martin has commenced She jumped ahead of twelve rivals in one day las week. If this continues she will be one of the vic-tors, Hurrah for Sophie T!

CLIFTON HEIGHTS, Mo., May 12. To the Editor of the Post-Disputch:

Little Emma Blake is also deeply interested in the contest, and is as mad to see sweet Mrs. Rose Wright Fanning to Mrin, and till be still madder it she greater than the still madder it she greater in every way. Now dear Mrs. Editor, piease be so kind as to let me know if when the contest closes you will publish the number of votes cast for each teacher. Please answer me in the evening Post-Dispatch as soon as possible, and get Mrs. Fanning up head quick. Inclosed please find votes for Mrs. Fanning. Sister and I are going to get some more, Hurrah for Mrs. Rose W. Fanning.

ST. Louis, May 12, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: When I was a girl of 13 and 14 years, just the ag when a child most needs strong, right-directing in fluence, it was my good fortune to have for a teache a large hearted; earnest woman, who put her conscience into her work. Largely to her do I owe it that I escaped the fate of so many gris—the driftin into a frivolous woman. That teacher's name is shat a escaped the fate of so many girls—the drifting into a frivolous woman. That teacher's name Miss Jane Haliday. May Issk those who have n favorite to east their votes for this lady? Yours, Yours, ST. LOUIS, May 9, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Inotice in your paper to-day that Miss Callie A.

Prichet has lost her dead, which I regret very must. I have selected her as my choice, after seeing her an the lead so lost, and I will do all possibly can to bring her to the head, and I trust all her friends will do the same.

MAY 12, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

All week long the Post-Dispatch is showered with sweet missives, in regard to Mrs. Rose Wright Fauning. It is all very nice and highly appreciated by this charming lady, but why don't some of these "Loyal Friends" turn "Invincible Knights" and secure all of next Sunday's Post-Dispatch and seed Rose Wright Sanning to Dispatch and seed Rose Wright Sanning to most charitable woman. Inclose thirty-dive votes for her and I sincerely hope I may have the pleasure of wishing her bon yoyage and au revoir.

Mrs. J. L. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

ST. LOUIS. May 11, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Inclosed you will find thirty-two votes for Miss Stella B. Steth of the Lowell School. If untiring zeal and amlable disposition are a sign of popularity, then I think she ought to head the list. We are working very hard to give her the trip which she deserves.

2837 Nebraska avenue.

ST. LOUIS, May 12. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Elselieving that Miss Viola E. Heltzel of the Divoll School, is a deserving teacher and that she should be compelled to go to Europe, I will cast a vote for any teacher, if every other person having a vote will cast their vote for her.

MAUD WADE.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 10, 2000.

To the Edifor of the Post-Dispatch:

I am not personally acquainted with any of the St.
Louis school teachers. but I think they were born under lucky stars. There were no Post-DISPATCHES when I was a girl. I will cast my vote for Mrs. Rose W. Fanning. She bears my maiden name, and I think from all accounts she must be a most estimable lady, a wonderful woman, a faithful teacher and a true Christian. I do hope she will be lucky.

J. BRYAN. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 10, 1890.

ST. LOUIS, May 12. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Please find inclosed votes for Mrs. Marle Erskins, one of the kindest teachers I ever mer with. I would like to have her sail to Europe, as sne is getting up to the head of the list.

ANNAPOLIS, Mo., May 11, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Please find inclosed ballot for Miss Rosalle Kaufman. Hoping it will help her to go to Europe, I remain, yours truly,
C. S. HART.

Sr. Louis, Mo., May 9, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Although I am not personally acquainted with Callie A. Pritchett, I would be very sorry to see her defeated as she has held the first position so long that it would be a shame for her to be defeated now.
Yours respectfully,
LEARA A. FIFER.

To the Editor of the root.

To the Editor of the root. Disputch:
Inclosed please find two (5) ballots for Mrs. Ross Wright Fanning, I am the 8-rear-old grand-daughter of the late Edward Morgan of St. Louis. Mrs. Fanning was my mamma a first teacher, and I hope she will be the successful one for the trip to Europe.

PEARL HOPPKAMF.

WYNNE, Ark., May 13. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Inclosed find aleven votes for Miss Sophia J. McEdwaling also four guesses. Your valuable paper just received with portraits of the teachers. Miss MoEdwale I flime is the handsomest. I hope she will be one at the lacky one.

AN ADMINE.

ST. LOUIS, May 11. to the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Inclosed you will find five votes for Mrs. Fanhat is the matter with her friends and pupils asy asleap? I think they ought to wake up work for her. No teacher needs a trip me she does. They ought to be ashamed of themselves if they do not have her name at the head of the list next bundar. Just think how easy it is to send her when the Post-Disparch gives you such a chance. Let every man, woman or child whom she has taught cast one, just one, vote for her next Sunday, then see whose name will head the list.

ONE OF THE EADS SCHOLARS OF 1868.

St. Louis, May 12, 1890. To the Editor of the Post Dispatch:

I think Miss Annie Fletcher should be, the lady to go to Europe, a she is the sweetest lady teacher year went to. ST. Louis, Mo., May 12, 1890.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Inclosed find votes for Maggie & Hughes of Crow School. You have her on the list as Mary A.
Hughes. With best wishes for the Post-Disparch.
A FRIEND.

ST. LOUIS, May 11. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I send three votes for Miss Margaret Watson of the O'Fallon School. I have sent ten before, hoping that it would put her in the lead for the trip to Europe, for she was very kind to me when I went to the O'Failon School and I think that the children who go to the O'Failon School ought to wake up and get votes for her, as she is surely a nice teacher.

MANIE OLIVER.

MEXICO, Mo., May 11, To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: As it don't cost anything, I take great pleasure in giving my friend, Miss Maggie Frederick, a lift in your generous and novel scheme.

HENEY E. TUENER.

87. Louis, Mo., May 10, 1890. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Inclosed you will find 10 ballots for Miss Eliza Morrow. I wish I had 100 ballots for her. She is one of the sweetest teachers, and trests every one equally alike. I cannot see why all her friends cannot come tegether and send one so worthy of the honor as Miss Morrow. I am going to work hard for her. I know I will have twice as many next Sunday.

ALTON, ILL.

City Council Meeting - Mayor's Appeint ments-Items of Interest.

The City Council met in special session yes terday afternoon, with a large attendance, it being expected that the difficulties of the last meeting would be renewed. But those who came with that idea were happily disap-pointed, and after the preliminary business was pointed, and after the preliminary business was transacted the council settled down to solid work. The Mayor's appointments were practically the same as last year, except that Wm. Huskinson was nominated for Street Commissioner and John Tansor, Jr., has a place upon the police force. The ordinance regulating municipal expenses for the next facal year was adopted. The Brown Tobacco Co. was given the right to extend the I. & St. L. switch from the Hopgood plow factory in the tobacce factory. The meeting altogether was a very satisfactory one and the year's business starts off very well.

one and the year's business starts off very well.

Rev. J. R. Johnston last night gave an able lecture at the Unitarian Church on the subject, "One Situation of the Race Problem."

The farm of J. B. J. Howard, situated one mile north of this city, has been sold to Edward Haillster.

The Huse-Loomis Ice Co. has sold all the ice stored in its houses opposite this city to the American Refrigerator Transportation Co.

The case of the people of Upper Alton vs. the C. & A. Railroad, to compet the laster to locate a depot at that point, which has been befors the courts for saveral years, will probably be decided at Edwardsville to-day.

The location of the Brown Tobseco Co. at Alton is now thought to be an assured fact.

Prof. Wm. McAdams left yesterday evening on an extensive geological expedition through the South.

Here is Another Suggestion, and a Vacation Trip Goes With It.

The Coupon Below Is to Be Filled Ont With an Estimate of the Vote the Leading Teacher Will Receive in the Popular Election-If You Come Nearest the Fig. ure, the "Post-Dispatch" Will Give You a Two Months' European Tour-You Can Guess Will Count-Here Are the Particulars.

Two teachers will be sent to Europe at the expense of the Post-Dispatch-the two most popular lady teachers in the city. To deter-mine the relative popularity of all St. Louis teachers, the public has been invited to vote. ber of votes will, being the most popular, be sent to Europe. In addition, the person guessing the vote that will be cast for the teacher receiving the highest number of bal-lots will also be sent to Europe as the expense of the POST-DISPATCH. printed in every issue of the Post-Disparch except Sunday. All guesses not written on the official coupon will be disregarded, but all properly filled out official coupons will, on their receipt in the Post-Disparch building, be numbered mechanically in the order of

This contest began on Monday, April 14, and will close at 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, May 24. The vote of the teachers will be ascertained by the official recount, which will be completed in the week following, and on Sunday, June 1, the winners in the teachers' contest and the winner in the guessing contest will be announced.

The coupon is very simply constructed and there should be no mistakes in using it. The white space that is surrounded by scroll work; the guesser's name and address should be written in the spaces indicated. It is important that the guesser's full name and proper address should be given that if the is a winning one the winner may be

The coupon when filled should be inclosed in an envelope and addressed:

GUESS ON TEACHERS' CONTEST,

POST-DISPATCH, ST. LOUIS.

This must be remembered: Coupons are numbered in the order they are received in this office, without regard for the dates written on them. If you send in three coupons on one day—say, April 26—the numbers put on them will be consecutive, though you may 26. The numbering will not be in accordance with the dates. The numbering is for the purpose of determining the order in which coupons are received. If at the end of the contest it is found that there are two coupons bearing the winning guess, the prize two that bears the earliest register number. This contingency is a possibility, but scarcely probable, as the range for guessing is too great.

No one can have any information that would Erlead him certainly to the right number. The number of ballots cast for any teacher is known only to the tellers in charge of the balots received and can not be divulged to any other person. Employes of the Posr-Dis-partch are debarred from guessing, and can not receive the benefit of any other person's successful guess. Every subscriber has as not receive the benefit of any other person's successful guess. Every subscriber. Every guesser has as much information as all other guessers. No one can have any advantage in the contest.

The successful guesser will go to Europe under the guidance of Cook Tourist Co. at the expense of the Post-Disparch. The tour will occupy nearly two months and the tour-lists will be shown every object and place of interest under the most favorable circumstances. The winners in the teachers' contest and the successful guesser may go together or separately, as they may wish.

The successful guesser will not be required to go on the tour, but may give the prize to any one. He can give it to any relative or any friend, and if one of the winning teachers should win the guesser's prize she can name any person she wishes to accompany her.

The prize is very valuable, and all the conditions surrounding it are as liberal as it is possible to make them. No obligation of any service whatever is attached to the prizes. No limit has been placed on the number of guesses one person can send in. Guess as often as you have a coupon and get as many coupons as you can. The prize is valuable

souri and Kentucky Borsemen-Advan-tages of the Western Ranges as Stock Parms-Points of Superiority problem of no little difficulty. An experiment in a new method of preparing race horses for the track is to be undertaken this several St. Louis terested, and best results are expected by

For several days Elbert E. Hunter, a ranch owner and horse breeder located some distance north of Medicine Bow, Wyo., was in the city, ing their co-operation in the plan that he has conceived for maturing racing stock, and putting it in condition for the track. Mr. has made arrangements with several owners of racing stock in the Lexington district, and has also secured the aid of St. Louis horse-

WESTERN RANGES FOR RACERS. To a representative of the Post-Disparch Mr. Hunter said: "My plan is the result of long observation of the effect of climate and food upon horses, and I feel confident that it will prove successful. On the high arid plains of the great food upon horses, and 'I feel confident that it will prove successful. On the high arid plains of the great Rocky Mountain plateau the native horses, although destitute of the wightest claims to blood, allowed to grow up without care, and generally of small size, are capable of feats of endurance that it would not be easy to equal anywhere in the world. A 14-hand horse, with a load of 200 pounds on his back, will travel forty miles a day for a week or more without any other food than he can pick up at night, and after a day's rest at the end of the trip will be in as good condition as ever. I am a Kentuckian and have always studed horses very carefully, so, some time ago, I made up my mind as to the reason for this exceptional strength in animals so deficient in all apparent points that constitute a good horse, and decided that the same astonishing results could be accomplished with blooded stock. I believe that by proper methods a racer can be produced as superior to others of his kind as the Western pony is to the scrub of the East.

THE ACKNOWLEGOED SUPERIORITY of the Kentucky horse is not so much due to superior blood as it is to the famous bluegrass pastures, and one great advantage of them is that they grow on a limestone soil. We have, in my opinion, a pasturage in this country that possesses all the advantages of the blue grass in conjunction with a number of others. It is to be found on the high plateau at the eastern foot of the Rocky Mountains. Here a grass grows that is the best in the world for making bone and murchless the claim of the plant of the pl pasturage, what will be the effect? In the first place he will eat a grass which possesses all the advantages of the Kentucky blue grass, being rich in lime, and more unirtious, having little water and woody fiber. In the second place, the rarifed atmosphere calls for greater lung capacity, as a horse must in the course of a day inhale and have proved indisputably that young horses raised on the high plains young horses raised on the high plains of the same character that young horses raised on the high plains are must at lesser elevations. The fact that the ranges are sparsely grassed compels them to move up and down hill in a manner that greatly adds to their lung power. Thus a horse, instead of quietly grasing in a small muscles and may be said to be in continual training.

NO HORSKEREEDER needs to be found in the growing coits. Another advantage, and by no means a slight one, is to be found in the growing coits. Another advantage, and the recommendation is the effect which the hard to spread to the spread of the same on horses hoofs. States and quarter cracks are almost unknown in the West, and the commendation is the effect which the hard to the spread of the same on horses hoofs.

The Democrats of St. Louis County have about determined to place a county tieket in the field next fall. The covereignty of the Republicans in the campty for the past ten years has almost quancied the seal and enthusiasm of the Democracy. However, the zesiots are "keeping their powder dry and picking their finis" for another encounter.

The reliread accommodations that Clayton now enjoys are rapidly bringing late notice this town as a suburban retreat.
